

World Youth Skills Day 2021

Reimagining Youth Skills for the Present and Future

When?	What?
15 June – 15 July	Encourage participation in our ‘TVET Youth’ campaign UNESCO-UNEVOC is calling on all TVET youth between the ages of 15-24 to submit videos on the importance of youth skills for today and the future. These stories will be shared on our website and across social media channels as part of a global campaign to mark World Youth Skills Day (WYSD) on 15 July. Tips for recording and sharing videos can be found here: https://unevoc.unesco.org/wysd/
15 July	Join the virtual panel discussion A virtual panel discussion on ‘Reimagining Youth Skills for the Present and Future’ will be hosted by UNESCO, the Office of the Secretary-General's Envoy on Youth, and the ILO, in partnership with the Permanent Missions of Sri Lanka and Portugal. The event will bring together the voices of young people, TVET institutions, firms and business incubators, employers’ and workers’ organizations, policy makers and development partners. More information about the event will be available closer to the date: https://unevoc.unesco.org/wysd/
15 July – 15 August	Promote our Skills in Action Photo Competition We encourage you to promote our annual Skills in Action Photo Competition within your networks. The winning photographers will be awarded prizes and selected photos will be highlighted on our social media channels. This year’s competition will be launched on World Youth Skills Day and will run for one month. More information about the competition will be available on our website on 15 July. https://unevoc.unesco.org/wysd/

Should you have any questions about WYSD 2021, please contact us at unevoc.skills@unesco.org.